BRYAN'S SECOND CHOICE ON TICKET IS STANCHFIELD

New York Man Has Good Chance With Gray Out of the Running.

DEPENDS ON MURPHY.

Believed Stanchfield's Nomination Would Offset Sherman Up the State.

BY MARTIN GREEN.

(Special from The Evening World Staff Correspondent.) DENVER, July 3.—John B. Stanchfield, of New York, looms up this afternoon as a leader in the race for the Vice-presidential nomination.

William J. Bryan wants Judge Gray, of Delaware, for his running mate, but there exists strong doubt as to whether Gray would consent to run on the fall of the ticket.

In case Judge Gray persists in refusing the nomination the place will go to New York or New England, with the chances favoring New York. Much will depend upon Charles F. Murphy's attitude. By making concessions to Bryan he can have the naming of the Vice-presidential candidate, with Gray out of the running. Bryan favors Stanchfield over any other candidate from New York.

Mr. Stanchfield comes from Elmira, and his nomination would counterbalance whatever up-State advantage the Republicans may have gained from the nomination of James S. Sherman. Archibald McNeill, of Connecticut, is in the contest for the nomination and his chances may be considered fair because he has the backing of Alexander Troup, of Bridgeport. Francis Burton Harrison has a strong bond, backed by organized labor interests, and Samuel Gompers favors Harrison.

Angry at Parker. An amazing amount of bitterness has been stirred up in the Bryan advance guard here over the reported intention of Judge Parker to present to the Convention a resolution which shall, under the guise of eulogizing Grover Cleveland, land a solid slap upon William Jennings Bryan and the Bryan policies.

Judge Parker upon his arrival here this afternoon found himself far from popular. If Judge Parker insists upon presenting his resolution in the form given out in New York it is quite likely that he will be subjected to discourteous treatment.

The present plan of the Bryan managers is to allow a man known to them to submit a resolution of satisfactory character concerning the services and life of the late President Cleveland before Judge Parker is recognized. Then the Parker resolutions can be offered only as a substitute and can be voted down.

The Brooklyn Contests. The arrival of Charles F. Murphy, Judge Parker and Pat McGarran late this afternoon will serve to put plenty of ginger into the ante-convention proceedings. Both McGarran and Murphy will soon be in conference with the Bryan managers about the contests in Brooklyn. McGarran is in the position of not caring particularly whether he wins or not. He is against Bryan anyhow, in or out of the convention, and stands no show of seating his delegates unless the Bryan people, who control the arrangements, should decide to recognize them as a means of disciplining Charles F. Murphy. The Johnson and Gray booms are gaining for breath today like a belated wind. Although on the face of things there is absolutely no chance of defeating Bryan for the nomination, the Johnson managers are playing a game bearing which indicates the possession of something in the nature of a bombshell. They are playing a pretty strong brand of politics and may spring a big sensation at any minute.

$125,000 INTERSTATE CLAIM.

WASHINGTON, July 3.—A demand for $125,000 reparation, with interest, the largest amount the Interstate Commerce Commission has ever been called upon to grant, is made in a complaint filed today by Henry E. Mosker, as surviving partner of Mosker & Company, Pennsylvania anthracite coal dealers, against the Erie, Susquehanna and Western, and the Williams-Barre and Eastern Railroad Companies. The commission is requested to fix a reasonable joint rate for transportation of coal between the anthracite coal region in Pennsylvania and Edgewater and Weehawken, N. J.

MONFORT BEATS SPOONER; FAVORITES HAVE BAD DAY

BY VINCENT TREANOR.

(Special to The Evening World.)

SHEPSEAD BAY, July 3.—A nose was all that separated Spooner from his first victory of the year. In the fourth race he led into the stretch by a comfortable margin, only to give way in the last few strides to a determined rush by Monfort. Grapple closed, too, in the stretch, and got up to be a close third. This was one of the hardest races of the day. Bedouin's chances were well liked as were those of Don Enrique and Juggler.

Monfort was in a measure over-looked, and so was the light weighted Spooner. Tony Bonero led all the way to the stretch turn, followed by Spooner and Marathon, where the first named had enough and the race looked to be between Spooner and Marathon. Right here Marathon shut up and dropped back.

Little Upton on Spooner looked around and went to pieces, and Gilbert had only to keep his mount straight and went on to win.

No Change in Conditions. The crowd was the largest of any day since the anti-betting law went into effect. The police were on hand as usual, but did not interfere with anybody. The association officers had no announcement or comment to make on Judge Birchhoff's decision, it evidently being the plan to have a thorough interpretation of the decision before taking any action.

Betting was on in much the same way as it has since the new law knocked out the posting of odds and recording of wagers.

The Saratoga Racing Association has issued entry blanks for four reframed stakes, the Saratoga Handicap, Merchants' and Citizens' Handicap, the Catskill Handicap and the Beveridge Steeplechase. All will have reduced values and close on July 13.
